MEDIA RELATIONS RESOURCES WEBSITE

The Sharks media relations department has created a media resources web page where media can find team press releases, game notes, league statistics and other pertinent team information.

The website also includes links to everything you might need during your visit to San Jose including our team media guide, schedule, team/player stats, directions, parking, taxi information and dining options for the San Jose area.

TRAINING CAMP NOTES

Player Information Note: The players listed are those who were expected or invited to attend camp as of Dec. 30, 2020.

Roster Cutdown: As part of the revised agreement in place for the 2020-21 season, NHL clubs can carry a maximum of 36 skaters on their active training camp roster with an unlimited amount of goaltenders. There are no mandatory cut down dates, but teams must be at their limit by their first regular season game for a 23-man roster and up to six players on the 'Taxi Squad.' Additional players attending camp, but not making the Sharks, will be assigned to the Sharks top development affiliate, the San Jose Barracuda of the American Hockey League, other minor league teams or returned to their Junior or European clubs.

Media Availability: All training camp practice sessions are closed to the media and general public. Please note that due to various factors including team breakdowns, scheduled post-practice workouts, testing or meetings, not all players may be available to the media at the same given time. Members of the media should check with the Sharks Media Relations Staff for daily schedules. If you are looking to speak with specific players, it is best to check with the Sharks Media Relations Department to coordinate timing. Most availability sessions will take place at the conclusion of the day's on-ice sessions virtually. There will be no in-person access to the players at any time during training camp.

MEDIA INTERVIEW POLICY

PRACTICES: ICE DEN -- All interview requests should be directed to the Sharks Media Relations Staff. The recommended time for media to interview Sharks players is immediately following all practice sessions, unless a team meeting or workout is planned. All interviews coordinated and scheduled will be conducted virtually.

OTHER: All interview requests should be directed to the Sharks Media Relations Staff and must be cleared through the Sharks Media Relations Staff. All interviews will be conducted virtually.

HEAD COACH BOB BOUGHNER-- Is typically available to the media at the conclusion of each day's practice session, unless a team meeting is planned. Requests for interviews other than following practices or skates must be cleared through the Sharks Media Relations Staff and will be conducted virtually.

TENTATIVE MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Per the NHL and NHLPA, ALL media availability during the 2020-21 NHL season will be conducted virtually. The San Jose Sharks media relations staff will make every attempt to accommodate requests, but given the fluid nature of this year's camp, we cannot guarantee all requests.

During Training Camp, the Sharks will make a small, select group of players available each day, pulling from each of the two groups. Head Coach Bob Boughner will speak with the media following each day's final session.

Please be aware that the below schedule is tentative and very likely may change. We will try our best to keep you updated of any changes and will also be recording each session. Should you require audio or video, please contact us.
